The annual meeting of the Academy of Electrical Engineering was held on Friday, April 12, 1996, at 9:00 a.m., in the Missouri Room of UMR's University Center East. The meeting was chaired by President William Hord. President Hord acknowledged the recent passing of the following Academy members: Fred Finley, Charles Brinkman, and J. Stuart Johnson. Larry Rushing read a letter from Gabrielle Skitek who was in an auto accident and unable to attend the meeting.

David Cunningham, Electrical Engineering faculty, read letters from scholarship recipients. Two scholarship recipients, Kayleen Hubert and Eric England, spoke to the Academy.

President Hord introduced Connie Eggert who gave a summary of the Seminar Room fund raising effort. Connie reported one-third of the funding has been met for the EE Building Renovation/Addition - EE Academy Seminar Room. Connie pointed out that the Development Office is sensitive to the Academy scholarship efforts.

In Dr. E. K. Stanek's (Chairman EE) absence Dr. David Cunningham gave the "State of the Department" address. He discussed the following:

a) Enrollment
b) External Funding
c) EE Addition
d) ABET Visit
e) BS Computer Engineering Degree

It was suggested we include a presentation from a member of the 1997 solar car team at next year's meeting.

The morning session was adjourned at 12:00, lunch was served in the Carver Room.
